Work Sample List

1. “Insomniac” - 2021, 20x24”, Acrylic on canvas.

A self-portrait of insomnia during the Covid pandemic where pictures on the wall represent my physical location and feelings of being “stuck” in Charlotte, NC, a city located between the Appalachian Mountains and the Atlantic Ocean.

2. “Lockdown Binge” - 2021, 11x14”, Acrylic on canvas.

This painting depicts a common scene of binge-watching television and feelings of captivity during the Coronavirus lockdown, allowing the viewer to feel like a family member returning to their seat.

3. “The World is Ending Again” - 2021, 20x16”, Acrylic on canvas.

A private moment as a NYC subway rider takes in a hyperbolic headline and the fearful reality of illness, lack of personal space, and increasing racial tension loom over a grim daily routine for Asian Americans, unfairly blamed for the spread of the coronavirus.
