2020 Care Campaign | A Covid-19 Social Practice Project | Various USA Cities

- Care Campaign is way to gather the community and encourage small acts of kindness by sending Hope Cards to essential workers during the covid-19 pandemic. Hope Cards were created from Hart's paintings during the stay-at-home ordinance. Mindful of the stress, and for some, trauma of the season, the small acts of kindness of gifting cards encourage community unity and nourishes hearts and minds. The aim of this project is to highlight caring for mind and heart health. It also reveals how interconnected our communities really are and our genuine need for one another.
