

TARYN CHASE JACKSON

Taryn Chase Jackson is an artist working primarily in collage. Originally from Western New York, she now lives in Northwest Alabama. Taryn first explored art as a high school student, and was thrilled to have her work published in the local newspaper and to win the Tri-County Arts Council's Scholastic Gold Key Award for Art.

Taryn completed a visual art concentration as part of her Humanities undergraduate degree and holds an MFA in creative nonfiction writing. She works as a grantwriting consultant and regularly posts new work on Instagram at <http://instagram.com/anyslyenchanter>.

EXHIBITIONS

Women's History Month: Jacksonville State University,
Jacksonville, AL - MAR 1-31, 2022

Collage ("Genealogy") chosen for a juried exhibition
Jurors: Morgan Worsham and Sarah Ellis

Embracing Art: Carnegie Arts Center
Decatur, AL - Mar 15-Apr 16, 2022

Collage ("Hole In Her Heart") chosen for a regional exhibition
Exhibition Coordinator: Mary Reed

Vices: Arc Gallery

San Francisco, CA – Nov 20-Dec 18, 2021

Two collages ("I is for Influencer" and "Self-Made Fortune") chosen for a national juried exhibition
Juror: Philip Bewley

Artworks 2021: Tennessee Valley Museum of Art
Tuscumbia, AL – July 16-Aug 13, 2021

Two collages ("Inhale Courage" and "Exhale Fear")
displayed in the 59th annual Tennessee Valley Art Association member showcase

Emergence: Tennessee Valley Museum of Art
Tuscumbia, AL – June 1-July 2, 2021

Two collages ("Future's So Bright" and "Things Are Looking Up") chosen for a national juried art exhibition for emerging artists
Jurors: Stacey Holloway, Darius Hill, and Wayne Sides

Artworks 2020: Tennessee Valley Museum of Art
Tuscumbia, AL – July 27-Sept 11, 2020

Two collages ("The Tower" and "The Sun" from the Major Arcana Tarot Series)
displayed in the 58th annual Tennessee Valley Art Association member showcase

EDUCATION

Goucher College, Towson, MD
MFA, Creative Nonfiction, 2005

New York University, New York, NY
Certificate, Publishing, 1997

Roberts Wesleyan College, Rochester, NY
BA, Humanities (English/Art/Music), 1997

Cassadaga Valley Central School, Sinclairville, NY
NYS Regents Diploma, Fine Arts, 1993